

Winners of the CAHN/ACHN Dr. Allemang Scholarship

2008 - Beverley Hicks, University of Manitoba. Doctoral studies and thesis titled: From barnyards to books and beyond: An examination of the evolution, education, and professionalization of psychiatric nursing in Manitoba, 1955-1990. The supervisor was Dr. Denis Hlynka.

2007 - Mary Jane McCallum, doctoral student from the University of Manitoba studying Aboriginal nurse history in Canada during three periods: 1900-1945; 1950s and 1960s; and 1969-1989. Thesis Supervisor: Adele Perry.

- Shaina Goudie, master's student from Memorial University, Newfoundland. Thesis topic: The changes in nursing education in Newfoundland after 1966, the year the BScN programme was established at Memorial University. Thesis Supervisor: Terry Bishop Stirling.

2006 - Chris Dooley, doctoral student from York University, Ontario, and Visiting Scholar at University of Manitoba. Dissertation: Gender, work, skill and the occupational culture of psychiatric nurses in western Canada, 1930-1975. Thesis supervisor: Dr. Kathryn McPherson, York University.

2005 – No scholarship awarded

2004 – No scholarship awarded

2003 - Sonya Grypma, doctoral student from the University of Alberta. Dissertation topic: Healing Honan: Canadian nurses at the North China Mission, 1888 – 1945. Thesis Supervisor: Dr. Janet Ross-Kerr.

2002 - Florence Melchior, doctoral student from the University of Calgary. Dissertation: Nursing student labour, education, and patient care at the Medicine Hat General Hospital, Alberta, 1890-1930. Thesis Supervisor: Dr. Geertje Boschma.

2001 - Marion McKay, doctoral student from the University of Manitoba
Dissertation: Saints and sanitarians: The role of women's voluntary agencies in the development of Winnipeg's public health system, 1882-1945. Thesis Supervisor: Dr. Gerald Friesen.

2000 – No scholarship awarded

1999 - Veryl Tipliski, doctoral student from the University of Manitoba. Dissertation: Parting at the crossroads: The development of education for psychiatric nursing in three Canadian provinces, 1909-1955. Supervisor: Dr. Alexander Gregor.

1998 - Cynthia Toman, master's student at the University of Ottawa. Crossing the technological line: Blood transfusion and the art and science of nursing, 1942-1990. Supervisor: Dr. Meryn Stuart.