

CAHN: Vera Roberts Award

NB: during the first 5 years of the Award (2007-2012), the Award has benefitted 6 individual historians, two of whom have received second follow-up awards to preliminary studies.

2011

Dr. Myra Rutherford, Associate Professor of History at York University. The project, "We Wanted an Adventure:" Career Paths for Nurses in Northern Canada, 1930-1970. $12,000.00

2010

Dr. Kristin Burnett, Assistant Professor of History at Lakehead University, with Dr. Geoff Hudson, Associate Professor in History of Medicine at the Northern Ontario School of Medicine. Follow-up study on the papers of Vera Roberts deposited at Lakehead University. $ 6340.10

2009

Promotional booklet developed to encourage applicants to the Vera Roberts Endowment Fund
$ 690.01

2008

Joyce McQueen, expenses for travel and research to prepare a biography of Vera Roberts.
$1,186.67

2008

1) Dr. Myra Rutherford, Department of History at York University. Partners, patients, and place: Patterns of nursing experiences in Pangnirtung, 1930-1970. $ 3,500.00

2) Dr. Kristin Burnett, Department of History, Lakehead University; Co-investigator: Dr. Geoff Hudson, Historian from the Northern Ontario School of Medicine. The nursing career of Vera Roberts as health care provider in the far North. $ 3,500.00

2007

The first funds from the Vera Roberts Endowment Fund were awarded to Carol Helmstadter and Judith Young to bring three scholars to Toronto, to form a northern panel at the CAHN/ACHN International Nursing History Conference in June 2008. Northern Conference. $ 5,167.00